THE ECK WORSHIP SERVICE

Karma: Its True Meaning

"(The chela) must therefore realize that whatever is his inner state will be his outer physical karma. Until he learns to be free of any belief in a secondary cause, or that he is the effect of anything other than his own state of consciousness, he will always be a victim of the effects of the other or outer, worlds."

--Paul Twitchell, The Spiritual Notebook, p. 84

Sunday, 11:00 am, September 13th
Coos Bay Library Cedar Room, 525 Anderson

The public is warmly invited to ECK Worship Services. Each service focuses on an aspect of Eckankar. The Service lasts about an hour and features a reading from the ECK works, singing HU, and a group discussion of spiritual principles at work in daily life. Join others seeking to bring more insight and divine love into their lives at this special celebration of the Light and Sound of God. For those who like, light snacks follow the service.

Arahata training in Eugene

Recommended for all Eckists, even if you do not plan to be a teacher. The class teaches a lot about how to communicate with others and is a great spiritual experience!

For second initiates and above

October 3rd, November 7th and December 5th and a fourth session for those who want to be trained for youth classes
