Question: “I realize that some people—including myself at time—want to believe in chance so as to evade personal responsibility. Yet even when we’re ready and willing to accept responsibility for our thoughts, words, and deeds, it does seem that we still have to ‘catch the right wave’ before we achieve success in our endeavors. Can you please shed some light on this?”

Answer: “To ‘catch the right wave,’ Fortune has a habit of finding those who can make a plan and stick with it. True, one person out of a million hits the big time by winning the lottery, but don’t plan your fortune or future by simply buying lottery tickets week after week.

“Winners make their own luck.

“Many people who deal with failure have the peculiar habit of self-destruction. For example, a student may study moderately hard nearly the whole school year, yet neglect to study for the final exam. Or even worse, not show up at all. Why?

“The first step to finding success is being true to yourself and others.

“Simple English, please?”

“Do everything, large and small, as if you were doing it for God alone. That means the task will be done with love, joy, and (don’t forget) thoroughness.

“Success is a little like heaven: There’s always another step. A corollary of that idea is that success comes about in steps. And a plan simply creates those steps in the imagination, then on paper, then in reality.

Discover How HU Can Change Your Life for the Better

From moments in the distant past until the immediate present, there have been times when you have wished for something you could do to change your life for the better. Well, now you can do something to bring about this change. HU is an ancient name for God and when it is sung with love in your heart, God’s Love works with you, as Soul, in a new and exciting way. Public ECKANKAR Events for You, Your Friends and Families

You're cordially invited to attend ECK Worship Services in Salem. ECK Worship Services give you a small taste of the ECK Satsang Class experience, one of the most stabilizing, educational, uplifting and enjoyable activities ECKists have the good fortune to attend. Someone reads aloud a brief passage about a spiritual topic. Then those attending sing HU, a love song to God, for a few minutes and follow that with a contemplation of the reading and topic. An open discussion of the topic and how it applies to one's daily life follows. Those who attend often discover how the spiritual guidance of the Mahanta, The Living ECK Master is at work and available more and more in their lives.

ECK WORSHIP Services in Salem take place at Chemeketa Community College, Building 28, Room 101— a little north and east of Building 2 and 16 (take the sidewalk between Building 16 and the other small buildings and walk back to Building 28), on the third Sunday of the month, from 11 a.m. until noon. This month, on June 20th the ECK Worship Service topic will be "Moving Past Difficult Moments in Life."

ECKANKAR Membership

When someone wishes to learn a new skill or skills, sometimes, if they are fortunate, they get to study and work alongside a master craftsman who can teach them more than they could ever learn out of any book or training class. They get the benefit of all of that person's experience— specially developed techniques, tools, and shortcuts to getting the very best results. In ECKANKAR, we have the good fortune of having a master craftsman in the spiritual arts and sciences with us always. Membership in ECKANKAR enables us to study and work much more closely with the Mahanta, the Living ECK Master as we construct and travel our individual paths to God. Membership provides you with his writings in the form of monthly discourses, quarterly newsletters and members—only meetings to help you grow and unfold spiritually in ways you never dreamed could happen. You have the opportunity to attend Advanced Spiritual Study Classes called ECK Satsang Classes that help you and others to go ever deeper into the most secret of spiritual teachings with the guidance of the Mahanta and discover how to apply what you learn to your daily life. For more information or to join a class, please call Kay Marikos at 503-362-2695.

ECKClergyService

ECK members and the public are welcome to contact a member of the ECK clergy about the following services.

The four ECK celebrations of life are: The ECK Consecration Ceremony for young children, celebrating new life and a new phase in Soul's journey home to God; the ECK Rite of Passage for boys and girls of about age thirteen, celebrating their personal commitment to the ECK teachings; the ECK Wedding Ceremony; and the ECK Memorial Service.

The ECK Spiritual Aide session, though not counseling, can help you find your own answers in challenging situations through the personal guidance of Divine Spirit. The ESA session is conducted by an ECK Spiritual Aide, who is an ECK cleric specially appointed and trained to offer this assistance.

There are no fees for the above services, but ECK clerics accept donations to ECKANKAR. For more information, please contact:
